

Mini Syllabus

Course ID History 141

Course Name African- American History I

Credits 3

Instructor Roslyn Cheagle, Associate Professor of History

Email cheagler@cvcc.vccs.edu

Course Description

African-American History I surveys the history of black Americans from their African origins to the present. Part I of II
The first semester ends with Reconstruction after the American Civil War.

Prerequisites

Keyboarding skills
No history prerequisite

Textbook

Franklin, John Hope and Moss, Alfred A. From Slavery to Freedom: A History of African Americans
New York: McGraw-Hill, 2000. Eighth Edition.
ISBN: 978-0-07-229581-8

Technical Requirements

Microsoft Word 2007 and PowerPoint 2007
High-speed internet connection or the time to go to the nearest Community College, Public Library, College or University to take online examinations.

Typical Course Components and Activities

Textbook, primary documents and interpretative readings in African American History.
One research paper
One book review
Three online discussion topics
Written bi-weekly assignments from readings in the course.
Three examinations
One final examination

Additional Information

Blackboard 101 orientation required if you are not familiar with online testing or Blackboard.

All online examinations should be completed from a location with a high speed internet connection.

*Course syllabi are tentative and subject to change.